

Media/Publications Consent and Release

In order to document and communicate Achievement First's operations and success with prospective parents and teachers, current parents, teachers and students, contributors to the school, other educators, and the general public, Achievement First produces public relations, educational, instructional and fundraising materials, such as, without limitation, brochures, annual reports, a website, newsletters, press releases, curricular materials, instructional video, and other items. Reporters from television news, newspapers, and other media and education-related institutions, both nonprofit and commercial, sometimes express interest in Achievement First and visit the school to take photos, film video, or interview members of the school community.

child (and work produced by my child) to be photographed, interviewed and otherwise recorded on audio and/or video by Achievement First or an affiliated entity working with or authorized by Achievement First while he/she is at school or school-related activities and for Achievement First and related entities to have unrestricted use of what has been recorded. This permission to photograph, interview and/or record my child will remain in effect so long as my child is a student at Achievement First, unless revoked by me at an earlier date in writing and delivered to Achievement First in the same manner by which this Consent and Release is delivered. Permission to use the material obtained will survive the date when my child has completed her or his participation as a student at the school or revoked this Consent. In granting this permission, I understand that I have no control over how the recordings will be edited or how my child will be portrayed. I hereby consent without limitation to the broadcast, publication, display, editing, posting, or other lawful use of these recordings, which may include but not be limited to my child's name, image, likeness, spoken words, student work, performance and movement, in any form, (the "Works") for any news, informational, public reations, educational, professional development, fundraising, commercial, or promotional purpose, and in any media or through any communication channels, now existing or developed in the future. I hereby waive any right to inspect or approve the Works now or in the future, whether that use is known or unknown to me, and I waive any right to royalties or other compensation arising from or related to the use of the Works. I also understand that Achievement First and/or the respective media and other organizations shall own all rights, title, and interest, including the copyright(s), in and to the Works, to be used and disposed in perpetuity without limitation as these organizations shall determine in their sole discretion.
